

From: Anthony Hawke
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/24/02 12:30am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

You can't hide code (specifically, interfaces information and documentation) that would enable other's to write excellent applications to work alongside Windows (or whatever Microsoft product you want to choose), it limits competition and causes many users to miss out on quality software.

Take away competition and you limit innovation.... will we live in a world where Microsoft dictates what is possible?

Anthony Hawke
IT Support Officer
Australia